Perhaps this isn't the most tactful way to proceed with this document, however, with all that is coming out about the individual known as Rae Kohai, I don't believe I have nearly enough substance to justify its own testimony. However, I did notice some patterns of behavior that I can corroborate what others have said regarding how she acts in private towards others in the few brief conversations she and I had. As we all know, I'm not the most involved with the inner workings of the Slideshow Commentary Community, but I'm pretty typically open to converse with the individuals that reside inside. With that in mind, I will not make the claim that she committed any sort of action to wrong me, personally and normally, I would be adverse to sharing private messages, as when I had first done that in an argument between Vii Omega and Doodletones, neither party was particularly happy with me.

However, I'm merely putting this together on the basis that I would like to assist with evidence and information, I'm merely going to place our correspondence in here without much to add, feel free to come to your own conclusions.

oh btw my DMs are open to u so we're not awkwardly conversing with a character limit lol

That's fair, Twitters restrictive character limit constricts my typical lexicon.

Also i apologize if my weird out of nowhere venting can get a bit weird
I've been so jumpy and anxious the past few weeks so really anyone in ear shot I end up accidentally opening up all my current demons to
Jan 4, 2019, 4:09 PM
Well, you're free to converse with me, I'm no psychologist, but I don't have any particular usage for anything more secretive.
I've already learned my lesson regarding private matters.

It's just ever since my insurance got dropped
You see I was diagnosed with PTSD caused by like a super bad traumatic event late last year
Its why content on my end became so inconsistent with when I upload.
And it has just been acting up way more lately and trying to deal with it can be hard Especially since the things that set it off are so... common? I get set off by talks of pet deaths or dog dying or anthing along those lines
Becuz its so common people have been slipping up lately
One person specifically on new years pulled me into a private call to vent about their dog dying
Literally seeing the word _dog_ on my feed makes me frantically close any tab and hide
Or at least makes me get anxious

Jan 4, 2019, 4:14 PM
And becuz all of that anxiety just spikes for me in general
Its been rough the past year and a half idfk
Jan 4, 2019, 4:15 PM
I see, have you ever attempted desensitizing yourself to the triggers? Or is that not regarded as advisable?
Jan 4, 2019, 4:17 PM
For the most part? My therapist had me write a letter to my dog and I did, I even recorded me reading it to kinda help me cope more.
Like its weird I've been for the most part good for a while outside of people who both claimed to be my friend but also saying very insensitive things about my condition
As soon as winter hit
Everything has been harder to work with
Jan 4, 2019, 4:19 PM
Perhaps they are not aware of the effects of post traumatic stress disorder? I'll apologize in advanced if anything I may say will be seen as insensitive the further the conversation progresses, as I too am not sure what the mental illness has to avoid.
But if these people regard themselves as friends, it may just be ignorance.

Jan 4, 2019, 4:21 PM
Well I understand like if they get something wrong
I mean more like
Actually before I bring up an example it involves like a super big secret I'm 10000% not out about yet (for several major reasons)
But also even people like SolarFenrir, who I don't trust as much knows this secret so I guess trusting you with it isn't the worst idea I've ever had lol
Jan 4, 2019, 4:22 PM
I would guess I already know the secret
Jan 4, 2019, 4:23 PM
But like,,, I'm trans
Im not out as such yet, my parents would find out quickly and they are verrrrrry transphobic uh oh
Jan 4, 2019, 4:24 PM

Jan 4, 2019, 4:26 PM

Jan 4, 2019, 4:26 PM

Yeaaahhh
most of her reactions to me coming out to her has been super duper less than acceptable
Most of it made me super not to be around her
Along with her borderline acting very unhealthy towards me in several different regards
Jan 4, 2019, 4:28 PM
Like not just her saying "oh i think u might not be trans"
Like
Back in July when I came out to her she was constantly asserting might be something else Every time i came out to friends she'd be in the back like "wooowww i just cant be happy for others :c"
And when i told her i was sick of her behavior she indirectly threatened to off herself
After we made up she admitted to being jealous of me and even admitted indirectly that she was willing to actively give me bad advice out of jealousy
As an indirect guilt move, she also dropped hints of our fued in her video on snakes worst commentary of the year list
Cuz like,,, i was originally supposed to be in that Jealousy is a rather ugly thing.

I can't say though that I'm surprised by any of this, after what Vii Omega has previously explained to me. She appears very driven.
Jan 4, 2019, 4:33 PM
She,,, can be
Like she has her moments of being genuine and sweet
But even I cant tell how genuine those moments are anymore
Jan 4, 2019, 4:34 PM
Within the same few months she said she doubted me being trans
Suddenly said "oh i accepted that ur trans"
And then sometimes later WENT BACK to doubting me and saying my PTSD might be causing it becuz "heyo ptsd messes with the brain"
Like her behavior is almost borderline gaslighting towards me sometimes

Either that or she's incredibly bipolar. Regardless, why do you still consider her a friend at this time?
Jan 4, 2019, 4:36 PM
As of recently
I really don't
I've just had too many shitty experiences with just straight up cutting people off that I'm scared to say like Anything
Plus the smallest part of me hopes she'll get better and I won't have to
My biggest ultimatum recently is how she treats my friend Ashe
He recently came out as trans and I kno how she can be about that
If she even remotely makes him feel bad about it I will let her know I don't wanna associate anymore and bail cloud palace
I've let her get away with pushing around younger folk for identifying as trans before I'm not okay with her doing that again.
Like idk I feel bad for not being upfront with her but last time I told her how bad her behavior was, she just passive aggressively through it back in my face a lot

Jan 4, 2019, 4:44 PM

I will say, it's gud to have ur opinions based off wut I said. But I would never feel write as some one who has been trying to take my moral stances more seriously if my word was taken entirely at face value as fact. Not saying that's what ur doing, but I'd feel shitty if I ended up missing something or getting something wrong and Doodle ended up getting unnecessary hate thrown her way because of it.
I dislike her rn, but I also wish the best for her, becuz she does have real problems, I stayed friends with her for so long becuz I wanted to help her. But idk it started to feel like that she did even want my help so I stopped attempting to do so.

This has gotten me labelled with a "hate boner" for her, but I guess it's worth it if I can be the one to point out these things no one else seems to.
Jan 4, 2019, 4:54 PM
idk it's like i dont think u have a hate boner but i guess i understood why people thought that just based off the more idiotic of past critics not saying it's right to do i guess i just kinda understand how it happened i used to be among tho people but that's just cuz i get kinda defensive of my friends sometimes i will say i agree with her having trouble applying criticism like she's so quick to put herself down all the time but whenever people say similar shit to critique her she goes "um actually!!! 😡😡😡
ive heard her go on about criticism she didn't like in calls way more than one person should realistically go on about anything that's clearly bothering them\

that's the only thing im going off of, any other thing i have comes down to y'all having somewhat similar writing patterns and i guess it did kinda surprise me how quickly u guessed that I was talking about doodle when i said a friend said something shitty about my PTSD. Jan 5, 2019, 3:22 PM
The only conversations we've both been involved with in private didn't last but a few messages.
Jan 5, 2019, 3:23 PM
I guess my main worry is that her and I have backed away from each other so much in the past. Even tho my instinct is kinda telling me to at least move back to her at least a little, I also feel like my other friends would view me as almost like a battered wife going back to an abusive husband.
Jan 5, 2019, 3:29 PM
I think I have worded it best to Vii Omega, ally-ships are typically built on conflict.
But if she really is a problem, then perhaps it wasn't meant to last.

Jan 5, 2019, 3:30 PM
Well idk, part of me assumes you mean ally-ships as in friendship
But like god it's so hard for me to ignore every really good day her and I have had, she has legit been there for countless mental breakdowns I've had, got me out of doing stupid shit while depressed, I like crushed on this chick like 3 or 4 different times the past year and a half
So much of this has been hard to deal with becuz whether as a friend or otherwise I love her
This is just an odd mental conflict for me.
Jan 5, 2019, 3:34 PM
"part of me assumes you mean ally-ships as in friendship"

Jan 5, 2019, 3:37 PM
That is good advice, I'll talk it out with a close friend of mine.
Jan 5, 2019, 3:38 PM
So super TL;DR
Her and I have super talked things out and apparently while there were things I had right to be upset over, things i lacked to take into perspective and things i flat out ran off assumption on made things not nearly as bad as i originally made it out to be.
this is a lot of why i say take my angry vents about people with a grain of salt lol.

if the reason has anything to do with me i do nothing but apologize. ive been so fuckin out of it lately and ive accidentally been taking it out on others lately, i don't feel proud of it but god winter is really my worst fucking time of the year. my frustration is easier to set off, i'm ten times more anxious and i practically lose my gd mind

i guess last thing before i try to sleep again, kinda going back to the respect thing that's kinda why i was so worried that i made u unfollow everyone. ngl after the last time we talked i held a pretty decently high respect towards u, a lot of people, myself at one point saw someone who came off a bit cold due to the tone barrier, but just from our conversations alone my entire viewpoint kinda shifted quite a bit.
like if u were just some random person i had no opinion on, i wouldn't be bothered if i was the problem, cuz like,,, i had no emotional attachment.
but like in a weird way, even if u may not see me the same way, you feel almost like a friend ykno?
or at least you give a very friendly, almost somewhat inviting presence under what some others might perceive as being cold.
you have to forgive me if i'm laying everything on too strong, i'm running off low sleep and a couple ounces of anxiety shocking me up every now and again (a lot of it for unrelated reasons)

Though, alternatively, there was a Blaze the Movie Fan video I remember watching around the time I was creating my Dan Stein deconstruction.

As I did not previously want to cover repeat users using the same robot.
However, unless I wanted to cover Dan again, I don't have much I want to put the effort into.
Feb 20, 2019, 8:07 PM
I understand that, I'm not the biggest on covering someone more than twice at most.

I'm obviously have no qualms with covering a repeat user, just not with the same robot.
My "gimmick" as it may requires me to stay at least semi-consistent.
Feb 20, 2019, 8:10 PM
Ohh, I getcha. You have to understand, the only comms of yours I've seen recently has been the one on Dan and the one on the Cloud Comm Doodle was in which by the way I enjoyed the Cloud Comm one.
Feb 20, 2019, 8:11 PM
Thank you.
If I'm to be honest, I was concerned my video may had misrepresented points.

Thank you.
If I'm to be honest, I was concerned my video may had misrepresented points.
Though I don't get hung up on concerns as such.
It was still a passing wonder
Feb 20, 2019, 8:13 PM
Speaking of Cloud Palace, idk if the page has been updated yet but I dipped the fffffuuuccck outta that group today.
Feb 20, 2019, 8:14 PM
I do not pay that much attention to the group. But may I perhaps ask why you left?
Feb 20, 2019, 8:15 PM
The way the group was managed was really,,,,,,,,,bugging me tho idk part of me kinda was wanting to wait it out until things got better. but with all the positions SpaceGuru had displayed, along with his overall terrible behavior in the chat. I didn't wanna be associated with it. On top of a lot of other members I've found consistently problematic like Cera and Crimson.
And with all due respect, Doodle, don't hate her but her leadership skills are beyond not good.

I understand.
Doodle doesn't particularly seem like the type of person to take leadership.
Feb 20, 2019, 8:19 PM
It's just, I got sick of her constantly deflecting any issue that came up, when I confronted her on stuff it was kinda thrown back in my face or blamed on someone else.
Because she runs the group in a way where "the group makes decisions"
i told her the member count was getting crazy, especially with the guru shit
"_you could just vote no on the polls yknow_" ignoring that i,,, yknow,,, have.
i tell her we need admins
"we don't need them"
spaceguru literally had posted gore during a disagreement in the chat wdym doodle!?!?!?

and whenever the cloud comm on camproject got backlash, she shamed CP members that wanted to cover it by saying "oh this all could've been avoided if people just checked the video" even tho most of the group is busy??? She's also the one who covered Ceradust after he posted his script in the chat and gave people time to check it???
God I just got so angry cuz Jonah went on to start blaming himself for all the drama cuz he had issues with the cloud comm and godddddddddd I was dummy mad.

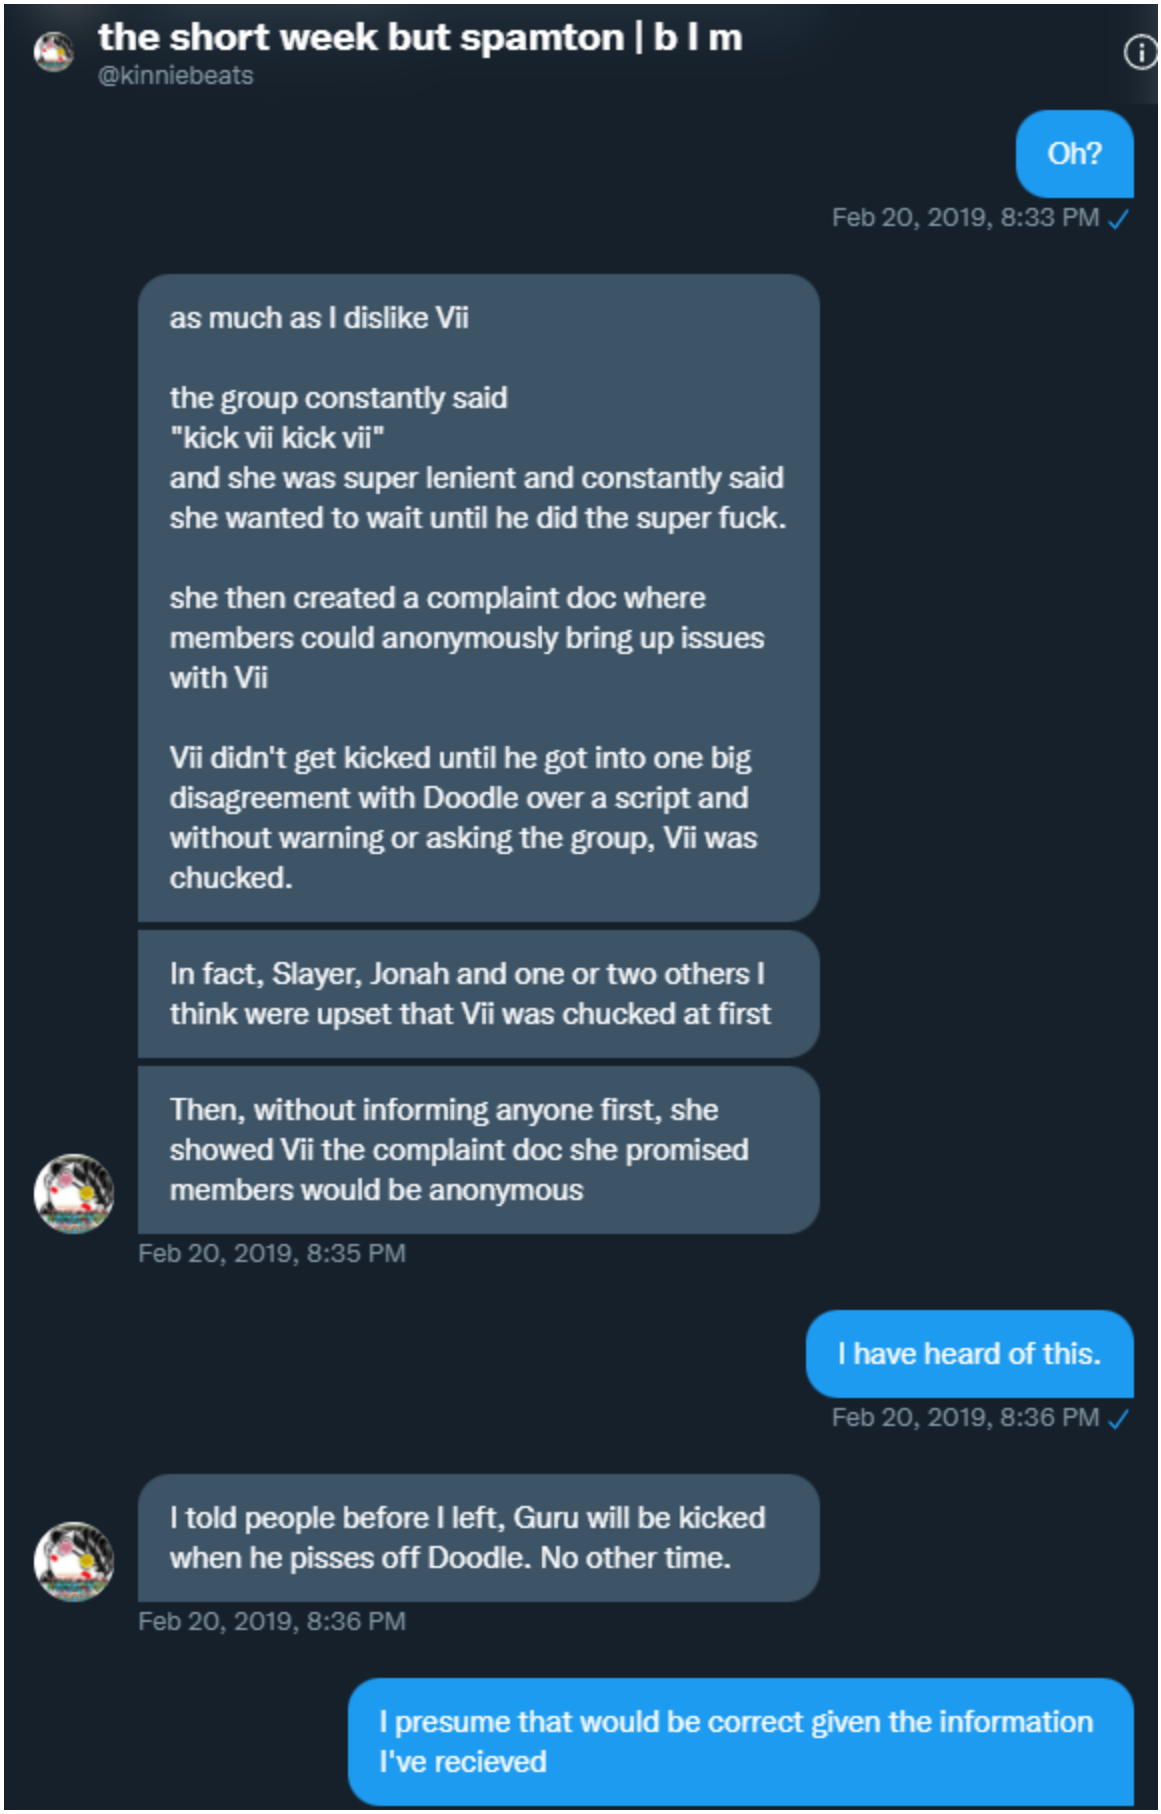
Seeing as how she responded during 2017 regarding the Alternative Commentary Community situation, I definitely got the idea Doodle is one that, pardon my language, really fucking cracks under pressure.
So I imagine conflict in a group would be a lesser form of that.
Feb 20, 2019, 8:27 PM
Yeaaaah
Feb 20, 2019, 8:28 PM
As for this democracy she's running, I believe, in concept, she has a proper idea, the point about members not lending assistance in a videos production for a group commentary is certainly one I grasp well enough, despite the blatant hypocrisy of this Ceradust situation you briefly explained.
That's just my perspective, however.
Feb 20, 2019, 8:32 PM
What makes it worse tho is that she says that the group runs the group but with all due respect
Vii was thrown out 100% on Doodle's terms and no one else's
Feb 20, 2019, 8:33 PM
Oh?
Feb 20, 2019, 8:33 PM



the short week but spamton | b l m
@kinniebeats
Oh?
Feb 20, 2019, 8:33 PM
as much as I dislike Vii
the group constantly said
"kick vii kick vii"
and she was super lenient and constantly said she wanted to wait until he did the super fuck.
she then created a complaint doc where members could anonymously bring up issues with Vii
Vii didn't get kicked until he got into one big disagreement with Doodle over a script and without warning or asking the group, Vii was chucked.
In fact, Slayer, Jonah and one or two others I think were upset that Vii was chucked at first
Then, without informing anyone first, she showed Vii the complaint doc she promised members would be anonymous
Feb 20, 2019, 8:35 PM
I have heard of this.
Feb 20, 2019, 8:36 PM
I told people before I left, Guru will be kicked when he pisses off Doodle. No other time.
Feb 20, 2019, 8:36 PM
I presume that would be correct given the information I've recieved

He has gotten next to no punishments for the shit he did on twitter or even the gore shit he pulled in TCP's discord
Feb 20, 2019, 8:37 PM
Well, regardless of what occurs in that group, I suppose it won't regard you.
Feb 20, 2019, 8:39 PM
Yeaaah
Feb 20, 2019, 8:41 PM
On a positive note, I'm super excited cuz I have a project I'm planning to upload soon!
Feb 20, 2019, 8:42 PM
Interesting, may I know the conversational debate topic?
Feb 20, 2019, 8:43 PM
a Mr. Nicholas E Miranda did a commentary sometime last year on my commentary on Jonah and boi,,, Nicholas sure is a person I can confirm this I think lol
Feb 20, 2019, 8:43 PM
Ah, Nicholas.

the short week but spamton | b l m
@kinniebeats
Ah, Nicholas.
Yes, I'm familiar with his work
Him and Awesomefan's 97 videos on one another.
Or so I heard was the number
Feb 20, 2019, 8:44 PM
Oh boy awesome fan
Feb 20, 2019, 8:44 PM
Their "war" persists to this day.
My subscription feed is very commonly filled with it.
Feb 20, 2019, 8:45 PM
Still!?
That's crazy omg
Feb 20, 2019, 8:46 PM
I've debated making a nursebot regarding the two of them, but since Awesomefan discontinued his previous channel, most of what I would have needed to archive is not currently obtainable.
Feb 20, 2019, 8:47 PM
I probably need to make more small projects this year ngl, my Nicholas comm was started early January and most of that was just doing the intro part lol

Feb 20, 2019, 8:51 PM
Sounds difficult.
Or at the very least, time consuming.
Feb 20, 2019, 8:52 PM
to be fair, most of the time was spent doing work, school and dealing with my PTSD

Mar 7, 2019, 5:19 PM
Have you perhaps been improving your situation?
Mar 7, 2019, 5:22 PM
I mean I'm gonna get meds soon
Hopefully that goes good and I finally got myself fully diagnosed with all the disorders my therapist and local health care center were able to discover. I have PTSD, Anxiety Disorder and Major Depressive Disorder.
None of which surprise me lol
Mar 7, 2019, 5:33 PM
That sounds like a positive.

Mar 7, 2019, 5:37 PM
it does, only downside if i have to wait 2 weeks before my appointment to get medicated and since it's still not technically spring yet my anxiety still consistently devolves me into what feels like a mental patient.
But it'll pass eventually.
Mar 7, 2019, 5:41 PM
Well, if it's only 14 days, I assume you'll hold out.
Mar 7, 2019, 5:42 PM
mhm, I'm doing my best
I just really want to drink one singular Pibb but caffeine will kill my day
Mar 7, 2019, 5:46 PM
